In drawing for positions in the ring Corbett has secured the lucky corner. He will have the seat Jeffries occupied the night he knocked out Ruhlin in five rounds. "Jeff" isn't worrying over getting the "hoodoo" corner. "Any old corner is good enough for me. I won't have to use it long." he says.

One look at the champion shows that the reports of poor condition are all rot. He says he is in fine shape, never better, and cannot lose.

Billy Delaney, "Jeff's" trainer, is almost positive "Jeff" will win. "I have no complaint to make as to "Jeff's condition," said the trainer his work of the mouth. Mertes walked, the bases full. Currle was up in the air, passing Babb and forcing Bres home. He was a bab and has more speed than he eve
